

Morrison & Foerster's Business Restructuring + Insolvency Group has a record of accomplishment in some of the most significant bankruptcy and restructuring matters of recent years.

We are counsel to debtors, creditors' committees, ad hoc committees, secured lenders, and other participants in the distressed markets. Our lawyers have deep insight into diverse industries and across many geographic and cultural environments.

We are not just a bankruptcy group; we are a global firm that provides world-class restructuring and insolvency services.
